

Eastwell Residential Home

The year 2003 was an eventful one for the Home. There was a number of changes within the residents and staff. In addition considerable redecoration took place of all the common areas. The changes and attention to the fabric of the Home imposed considerable strain on our Administrator, Head of Home and Ladies Committee and we are most grateful to them.

Last year's report stated that the Home had been full for a number of years but that in 2003 some vacancies would arise. This proved to be the case and this has continued into early 2004. As a result, a small deficit was incurred in the year ended 2003 as will be seen in the Income and Expenditure Account.

Eastwell Residential Home serves all Ireland and is supported from all Ireland. For this we are most grateful. The Administrator would be happy to hear of any enquiries from prospective residents or from those concerned about their care into the future.

We look forward with confidence to 2004 rejoicing in all the good things the Lord has bestowed on Eastwell and thankful for the concern and provision by so many.
